CHANGES TO BE MADE AT COURT HOUSE BY BOARD

At the meeting of the county board of commissioners this morning, Commissioner William C. Hunter, constituting the court house committee, made a report regarding the recent unpleasantness over the sanitary condition of the court house. It is said by the board that the recommendations made by Mr. Hunter will be carried out to the letter.

Mr. Hunter's report admits that some of the criticism that have been made against conditions at the court house are to the point, but he takes exceptions to statements and suggestions made by the health department of the city.

It is said unofficially that there will be a change in janitors at the court house. George Bain has been under the employ of the board a number of days and it is said that he has been offered the position to succeed Folkman.

Te report of Commissioner Hunter follows:

Commissioner's Report.
“Honorable Board of County Commissioners: As considerable newspaper publicity and criticism has been given by certain would-be dictators in regard to sanitary conditions of the county court house, we think it is due the public to know the true conditions and cause of the controversy.

“The whole matter has sprung from an investigation of the recent jail-break, when three prisoners escaped from the county jail, to ascertain if anyone in authority was at fault in this matter. In regard to conditions at the jail, we will say that they are far from being what we would like, and can possibly never be made so in the present quarters, but as far as being in so deplorable a condition as the sanitary inspector of the city claims it to be, that we deny.

“We desire to say that the present board of county commissioners has had the jail cleaned and painted and the sheriff's quarters made larger, painted and papered and has had a general cleaning out, and if the properties and employees of the jail, we feel there can be no just cause for complaint.

“As to the suggestions about building a new jail and making certain repairs, while doubtless necessary, that is a matter belonging entirely to the board of county commissioners. The only prerogative the inspector has in this matter is as to sanitary conditions.

“Now just a few words in answer to the communication received from Honorable N. J. Harris as embodying the suggestions from certain attorneys in this city. The conditions they mention with regard to the court house proper are very nearly true, and we have been trying to solve the perplexing problem for some time.
We think we have found the only true solution and will remedy the conditions in the very near future.

“So far as building a new county and city building, will say that while it is building is possibly needed in this city, and some time may be built, we feel that the time is hardly ripe yet. However, we are contemplating the advisability of building a new jail and making improvements in the court house, but in this matter we would like to be sure that we have the support of the taxpayers behind us, and as a foundation to the accomplishment of this much needed structure, we are requesting the heads of all departments to retrench whereby a commencement may be made in the near future.”

“Improvements Planned.
“Your committee requested to make some recommendations for the betterment of conditions in the county house respectfully submits the following:

“First, I am convinced that one good man charged with the responsibility of taking care of the court house and keeping it clean, and having absolutely nothing else to do, will be sufficient, and so recommend.

“Second, That it will be necessary, in order to satisfy the demands of the employees and others who have business in the court house, and to improve sanitary conditions, to have the janitor obtain living rooms elsewhere.

“Third, That so-called trustees be not allowed in or around the building unless under proper guard.

“Fourth, That the purchasing power be vested with the committee on supplies or others whom he may appoint, and that written requisition be given for all purchases for court house

SOME OF THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF MAYOR FELL'S ADMINISTRATION.

His administration has inaugurated and put into actual operation the commission form of government.
It has restored to and confirmed in Ogden City a water right to 27,000 acre feet of water, securing to the city thereby, when properly conserved, an inexhaustible and invaluable water supply.
It has constructed under an agreement with the Utah Light & Railway company a conduit connecting the city's pipe line with the line of the company at the city's intake in Cold Water canyon. This connection secures the city against fire and other emergencies and will be of especial service in case the twenty-four year old stove pipe line of the city east of Cold Water canyon should for any reason give way.
It has paid $50,000.00 water bonds in addition to paying the interest on $450,000.00 first purchase waterworks bonds, and extending the water mains for six miles in various parts of the city.

It has abolished the old month to month “waiting system” of paying employees, who for any reason leave the city's service during the month, thus making the city's time checks convertible immediately into cash and restoring their par value to the wage earner.
It has inaugurated a system by which all moneys collected for the city by its employees in various departments is deposited daily with the city treasurer. This system prevents the losses previously occurring by reason of misappropriations, etc., and at the same time effects a saving to the city in interest in the amount of $1,000.00 a year.
It has reduced the executive and administrative costs of the various city departments $10,000 a year.
It has completed surveys and estimates for the construction of a sewer in the Third ward.
Respectfully submitted,
DAVID S. COOK,
Chairman Executive Committee.

SOCIALISTS CLAIM THEY CAN WIN TOMORROW

City Recorder George A. Seaman has everything in readiness for the primary election tomorrow and the material, such as ballots, tally sheets, and other necessities for an election will be sent out this evening. The judges of election are required to call at the recorder's office for the material.

On the eve of the election there is little to be added to what has been written. There is but little interest being taken, compared with other elections. There are fourteen candidates in the field, six for four-year term commissioner, three for mayor commissioner, three for auditor and two for municipal judge. Of the fourteen only eight can be nominated tomorrow for the final election, November 4.

The result of the primary election tomorrow is a matter of conjecture, and varied speculations are rife as to who the winners will be. The Socialists are working untiringly for the nomination of their ticket and many of them are boasting that they will pull enough votes to accomplish that purpose. The Socialists contend that the vote tomorrow will be light and that inasmuch as it will be divided among many candidates, their expected strength of 1000 votes should elect their candidates.

On the other hand friends of other candidates say there is room for grave doubt as to the correctness of the Socialist forecast and they maintain that their candidates will succeed.

There has been no organized or concerted movement to centralize the vote for other particular candidates and the campaign, so far, has been conducted individually by the candidates.
The six candidates running for the nomination for four-year term commissioner are all strong men, each of whom will carry a good vote. So the politicians are guessing as to what the result will be. If there should be a vote of 4000 tomorrow and it is evenly divided with the six candidates, each candidate would receive fewer than 1000 votes.
It is predicted by the candidates, however, that the vote tomorrow will likely be considerably larger than it was at the primary election two years ago, as all the candidates “will have rigs in the field to get the people to the polling places. Today the candidates are finishing their canvases of the voters in preparation for the final effort tomorrow and each of them expresses the belief that he will be nominated.
